

OUR PROUD HERITAGE

ORANGE COUNTY
COMMUNITY
FOUNDATION, INC.

ANNUAL REPORT TO THE PUBLIC –
FISCAL YEAR
2012-2013

IMOJEAN DEDRICK
Executive Director

WE'RE PROUD OF ORANGE COUNTY...

To us, the work we do is a labor of love, a love for our community and for the people that populate it. We strive to connect those people with the causes that matter to them, as well as lead the way toward making this county the best it can possibly be. Throughout the fiscal year that ended September 30, 2013, the Orange County Community Foundation worked tirelessly toward enabling and enhancing charitable activities and purposes in Orange County, implementing and administering programs and projects such as beautification, recycling, county pride, building façade improvements, and much more. We know that Orange County is a great place to live, and we're excited to see the growth and improvements taking place here, while acknowledging that the true wealth of this county lies in the giving hearts of its people. The many donors, volunteers and caring people working so hard and so selflessly toward helping others and encouraging the growth of charitable causes in our own community constitute the true spirit of Orange County—the spirit of goodness. It is with this in mind that we celebrate the good people of Orange County while making further plans for growing, improving and maintaining the very best place that Orange County can be.

CAROLYN CLEMENTS
President, Board of Directors

WE'RE PROUD TO SERVE YOU, THE PEOPLE OF ORANGE COUNTY

I'm sure I speak for every member of the Orange County Community Foundation Board of Directors when I say it is an honor to serve the people of Orange County and the many generous donors here who make the work of the Foundation possible. We're all very fortunate to live in such a beautiful place, filled with caring and dedicated individuals who are forever seeking out ways to make life better for everyone here.

As a native Orange Countian and a lifetime resident, I feel very deeply the roots that our ancestors put down here more than two centuries ago, and am certain those first settlers would be heartened to see the philanthropic spirit that has grown and now inundates these rolling hills—a spirit that drives so many to give of their time, their talents, and their resources toward helping others in so many meaningful ways.

As we look forward to another productive and exciting year at the Foundation, we wholeheartedly join the people of Orange County in the growing enthusiasm and hopefulness that make this county such a wonderful place.

SARANN WEEKS-
2013 PHILANTHROPIST
OF THE YEAR

Coming to Paoli in 1960 as an educator, Sarann fell in love with Orange County and has been giving back to her adopted home in many, many ways. But her crowning achievement has been the establishment of Backpacks of Blessings, a program designed to provide much-needed food to children whose nutritional needs are not met at home. The success of the program, begun in the Paoli school system, has spawned similar projects in both Orleans and Springs Valley schools.

Sarann's philosophy is simple but inspiring, "I try to be a blessing to someone each day." And there are many throughout Orange County who have experienced the blessing that is Sarann Weeks. In addition to her Backpacks program, she is instrumental in preparing the annual community Thanksgiving meal, countless church projects, and much more.

JORDAN EICKELBERGER-
2013 EMERGING PHILAN-
THROPIST OF THE YEAR

The Emerging Philanthropist of the Year award is given annual to someone who exemplifies the growing spirit of giving among young people in Orange County. Chosen to represent that group for 2013 was Jordan Eickelberger of Orleans.

Seeing a need among children in his hometown for shoes, Jordan began a campaign to raise funds and provide for that need. Through his efforts, funds have been raised to put shoes on the feet of more than 45 needy children—all children who might otherwise have gone without substantial footwear.

It is in the efforts of young people like Jordan that we see the seeds of philanthropy growing among us.

MICHAEL MAGILL-
2013 LILLY ENDOWMENT
COMMUNITY SCHOLAR

Chosen as the year's Lilly Endowment Scholar was Michael Magill of Orleans. His activities in high school included the National Honor Society, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Future Farmers of America, and track and field; and he also acted as a teacher's assistant. As a sixth grader, he received the National Presidential Award; and he was presented the Chapter Discovery Award in FFA during his high schools years, along with a number of academic letters. Outside of school, Michael served in his church and volunteered with Habitat for Humanity's Apostles Build program, while working in a machine shop and running his own lawn care business.

Presently attending Rose-Hulman, Michael is pursuing a degree in engineering.

OCCF WOMEN'S GIVING CIRCLE

Now in its third year, the Orange County Women's Giving Circle has raised more than $20,000 and granted more than $5,000 to address women's health issues for uninsured and underinsured women through Orange County.

Working through both IU Health Paoli Hospital and Jubilee Health Care, the Giving Circle has provided funding for diagnostic testing and procedures for local women who could not otherwise afford to pay for them. The group's fund-raising activities have included golf tournaments, t-shirt and bracelet sales, and the sale of a cookbook filled with recipes from Orange County residents—and while doing so, they have had fun and provided the same for many volunteers and participants. In October, the group hosted a wine and cheese affair, their second such event, at French Lick Winery—with food, favors, and speakers from both medical facilities supported through the Giving Circle's efforts.

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

Through the generosity of Smithville Charitable Foundation and the Orange County Commissioners Supporting Organization, the Foundation was able to provide a number of community programs throughout 2012-2013, including the continuation of the county beautification project, and "Love Orange County" a county-wide campaign for pride of place.

Beautification efforts moved forward through Matthew 5:16 programs, TV amnesty, the cleanup of illegal dumpsites, and the promotion of recycling throughout the county. "Love Orange County" included a Spring symposium for local non-profits, featuring workshops, speakers, and opportunities for collaborations. At the Foundation's annual donor event, "Love Orange County" unveiled its video project by the same name, featuring the many favorable aspects of Orange County and why we love it here.

OCCF YOUTH COUNCIL

In its 12th year, the OCCF Youth Council membership was increased to more than 40—the highest rate of membership ever achieved by the group.

In addition to their many activities—including bell-ringing for the Salvation Army, their philanthropy education series, and volunteering for a number of non-profits—members treated themselves to a well-deserved outing to see “The Wizard of OZ” at Derby Dinner Theater.

Serving as officers for the year were Andy Ross, President; Noah Hinkley, Vice-President; Elizabeth Orr, Secretary; Brett Blevins, Treasurer; and Alexis Lamb, Public Relations Officer. Mentors were Susie Crane, Linda Gerkin, Heather Ross, Todd Hitchcock, Nicole Purlee, Brenda Wyman, and OCCF staff members Kelsey Roach and Imojean Detrick as facilitators.

2013 GOLDEN DEEDS RECIPIENTS

Honored by the OCCF Youth Council for their “golden deeds” in 2013 were ten deserving individuals, selected from 26 nominations received.

The honorees were:

Dave Childers
Brad Cooper
Frances Drabing
Linda Gerkin
Frank Hobson
Jim O’Connell
Holly Vincent
Denny Weikert
Betty White
Bill Willis

Nearly 80 attended the annual Golden Deeds banquet, held in the Unity Hall of Orleans Christian Church in November. Attendees were served by OCCF Youth Council members.

HOLLY VINCENT— FRED AND ETHEL CROWE EDUCATION AWARD WINNER

The Foundation was pleased to extend congratulations to Holly Vincent when she was presented with the 2013 Fred and Ethel Crowe Education Award in the Spring of 2013.

Holly, a former OCCF Emerging Philanthropist of the Year, was cited for her founding of the Running Start program, her work with at-risk students at Throop Elementary, and the innovative and cooperative ways in which she has advanced education at Throop and encouraged the achievement of her students.

Holly is the fifth recipient of this award, which was established by the Crowe siblings in memory of their parents.

ORANGE COUNTY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION, INC.

We're so proud of Orange County...of the past that our ancestors founded for us here, and of all the things we have accomplished and continue to accomplish on behalf of the people of this county.

To us, this is a wonderful place—our home, our security, our comfort. And we at the community foundation, along with all our donors and affiliates, seek each and every day to build on that heritage of pride in Orange County, through collaborations, community development, and community leadership by “connecting people who care with causes that matter to Orange County.”

This is Orange County....this is our home.
